Declaration

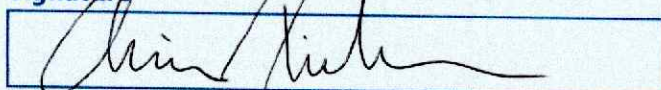

I declare that:

- I am a registered company auditor under the Corporations Act 2001.
- Within the last 10 years, I have not been a member of a registered political party.
- I was given full and free access at all reasonable times to the accounts and documents of the agent responsible for giving the return and of the relevant entity, candidate or group relating directly or indirectly to a matter required to be disclosed in the return.
- I have examined the accounts and documents referred to in the previous declaration point that I considered material for giving the certificate.
- I have received all the information and explanations I have asked for in relation to any matter required to be stated in the certificate, subject to the following qualifications:

Certain campaign expenditure was paid by credit card. The relevant credit card transaction statement has been retained as supporting documentation. Expenditure is captured at the date of the exchange of goods / services.

- I have no reason to think any statement in the declaration is not correct.
- In relation to the return under Division 8 (which includes donations, contributions and/or any amounts received), I have identified the source for each amount and have maintained a record for whether ECSA requires a copy.
- I acknowledge that, if in carrying out an audit to prepare this certificate, I have become aware of a matter that is reasonably likely to constitute a contravention of Part 13A by a relevant entity, candidate or group,
- I must, within 7 days after becoming aware of the matter, give the Electoral Commissioner written notice of the matter (section 130ZW).
- Knowingly providing false or misleading information in a material particular is an offence (section 130ZZE(3)).
